Past Live Regression Certification Training

In this regression hypnosis hands-on training program, you will gain both the theory and practice of hypnosis and past-life regression therapy. Each student will complete this certification program by being regressed 3 times by 3 different colleagues and also regressing 3 different colleagues. You will complete the program feeling competent to begin a regression hypnosis practice should you so desire. You will have experienced first hand the healing potentials of this work both as a practitioner and as a client. You can then add this skill to your current practice or create a practice using hypnotherapy as a tool for profound healing and life change. Peter will be available before and after the program for private sessions.
